

Visitor Questionnaire

Visitor's Full Name:

Date of Birth:

Fax #:

Gender:

Z# or Social Security #:

Primary Citizenship:

Secondary Citizenship (if any):

Visa Type:
(see bottom of message for pertinent visa info)

Visa expiration date:

Resident Alien Registration #:

Place of Birth City/State/Country:

Most Recent Employer, University, or Institutional Affiliation:
Employer Name:

Employer Address:
Employer Country:
Employer Phone #:
Fax Number#:
Position/Title:
Discipline/Expertise:

Most Recent Employer, University, or Institutional Affiliation in Home country (if different from above):
Employer Name:

Employer Address:
Employer Country:
Employer Phone #:
Position/Title:
Discipline/Expertise:

Begin date of Visit:

End date of Visit:

Home Address:

Home Phone #:

Preferred Address: Business or Home

Passport #:

Passport expiration date:

E-mail Address:

Visa Information:

WB, visa waiver for business, visitor can only be reimbursed for expenses incurred.

WT, visa waiver for tourist, visitor cannot receive any money.

B-1, visa for business, visitor can only be reimbursed for expenses incurred.

B-2, visa for pleasure trip, visitor cannot receive any money.

F-1, visa for students, visitor can work with specific authorizations.

F-2, visa for spouse of F-1 holder, visitor cannot work.

H-1, visa for temporary worker, visitor can receive fees and expenses from employer, but only expenses from others.

H-4, visa for spouse of H-1 holder, visitor cannot work.

J-1, visa for exchange visitor, visitor can receive fees and expenses from sponsor, and fees and expenses for J-1s from other institutions with sponsors approval.

J-2, visa for spouse of J-1 holder, visitor can be authorized to work by the INS.

TN, visa for Canadian or Mexican workers under the free trade agreement. Visitor can work for fees and expenses.

Canadian workers receive this visa at the border. Mexican visitors must obtain the visa at the U.S. embassy or consulate.

P-23 Group Office

Los Alamos National Laboratory, MS H803

ph. 505-667-5005

fax 505-665-4121